

THE CENTRE FOR ADVANCED TRAINING IN DANCE

The Centre for Advanced Training In Dance at The Lowry provides access to high quality training and nurturing in dance to young people who have a passion for dance and performing arts.

The scheme provides training up to the age of 18 and invites applications from anyone aged 12-16 regardless of their background. Further to this, the scheme welcomes applications from students who may have little or no dance experience alongside more experienced dancers.

Workshops and Open Days leading to the final CAT audition will take place across the North West of England and will offer a practical and informative experience to all who participate.

A photograph of three dancers in black performing a contemporary dance piece on a stage. The central dancer is in a high, dynamic pose with one leg extended horizontally and arms outstretched. To the left, another dancer is in a similar pose, leaning back. To the right, a third dancer is in a more fluid, lower pose. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

NorthWestDance seeks to champion dance in all its forms, making it accessible to all children and young people throughout the whole of the region.
