Foreword

Active Cumbria, the sport and physical activity partnership, is one of 43 active partnerships across England, and is part of Cumberland Council's Public Health Team.

Our mission: 'Improving lives through physical activity'

Our vision: 'Everyone in Cumbria is enjoying an active lifestyle'

We work in partnership with many other organisations including local authorities, third sector agencies, governing bodies of sport, leisure providers, education, health, equality and diversity agencies and other organisations committed to the development of directional physical activity and sport across Cumbria. The Core Team is led by an Advisory Board, which provides direction and leadership, advocacy, advice and support to help enable strategic aims to be achieved.

We believe that the welfare and safety of children and young people is of paramount importance, and that all children and young people have the right to protection from abuse and to take part in sport without risk of harm.

As an organisation, we have promoted the values of ensuring young people enjoy physical activity and sport in a safe and welcoming environment for many years, this led to Active Cumbria achieving the NSPCC's Advanced Level of the Standards for Safeguarding and Protecting Young People in Sport in 2009. Since then, we have continued to embed these principles in all our activities involving young people.

This Policy was initially developed and adopted by Active Cumbria in May 2007, and has subsequently been reviewed at regular intervals to take account of changes in the organisation and in relevant legislation.

It attempts to achieve a balance between identifying arrangements to ensure that Active Cumbria fulfils its duty of care, while being practical and applicable in the context in which Active Cumbria operates. It includes the mandatory legal requirements but also links to many other useful sources of information which will provide further information and guidance.

Lorraine Smyth

Chair, Active Cumbria Advisory Board

Richard Johnston

Senior Manager (Operations), Active Cumbria

1. Policy Statement

Active Cumbria is committed to safeguarding the welfare of children and young people involved in sport and physical activity in Cumbria. All children and young people are entitled to protection from harm and have the right to take part in sport and physical activity in a safe, positive and enjoyable environment.

We acknowledge that abuse can be a very emotive and difficult subject. It is important to understand the feelings involved but not to allow them to interfere with judgement about the action to be taken.

Whilst it is the responsibility of the safeguarding experts to determine whether or not abuse has taken place, it is everyone's responsibility to support the care and protection of children and young people.

We also recognise that:

- The welfare of children and young people is, and must always be the paramount consideration; the Children Act 2004 defines a young person as being under the age of 18.
- All young people have a right to be protected from abuse regardless of their age, gender, disability, culture, language, ethnicity, religious belief or sexual orientation.
- It is the responsibility of the statutory agencies to determine whether or not abuse has taken place but it is everyone's responsibility to report any concerns.
- All incidents of suspicious or poor practice and allegations of abuse should be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately.

This Policy is to be used by all individuals directly employed by or volunteering on behalf of Active Cumbria. Where individuals are employed by or volunteering for partner organisations but delivering activity under the Active Cumbria banner, the Policy and Procedures of the partner organisation will apply.

This Safeguarding Children and Young People Policy is inclusive and the same actions should be taken regardless of the protected characteristics of a child or young person as outlined in Active Cumbria's Equality and Diversity Policy.

2. Policy Aims

Active Cumbria has identified a number of aims it will undertake to ensure the safety and protection of children and young people, these being: -

- To ensure core team members know what to do should they be contacted or need to raise an alert regarding a safeguarding issue.
- To ensure that any events directly organised by Active Cumbria have an adequate safeguarding plan, processes and procedures.
- Provide advice, guidance and support to partners regarding safeguarding best practices, policy and procedures
- Ensure any commissioned organisations delivering activity on behalf of Active Cumbria have appropriate safeguarding policies, procedures and processes in place.

3. Compliance with Relevant Legislation & Guidance

We will ensure that this Policy and our procedures follow the guidance provided in relevant Government legislation and documents, and will ensure our procedures are in line with those identified by the Cumbria Safeguarding Children's Partnership, including:

- The Children Act (1989 and 2004).
- Protection of Freedoms Act (2012).
- Working Together to Safeguard Children (2018).
- Sexual Offences Act (2003).

4. Recruitment and Selection

Active Cumbria ensures the safe recruitment selection and induction of staff and volunteers through following Cumberland Council's recruitment, appointment and induction policy, procedures and guidance:-

- The recruitment, appointment and induction procedure will be applied when dealing with vacancies and appointments.
- The guidance and templates providing more detailed background information and factors will be taken into account when recruiting and making appointment decisions.
- This procedure and guidance will be used in conjunction with the recruitment, appointment and induction policy along with the process map.
All documents can be accessed via www.intouch.ccc

For further guidance on Safer Recruitment, Selection and Retention for Staff and Volunteers see the safeguarding practice guidance on the Cumbria Safeguarding Hub online procedures manual

<https://www.cumbriasafeguardingchildren.co.uk/professionals/saferrecruitment.asp>

In addition to this, Active Cumbria's induction process includes requesting individuals to sign and say they agree to abide by the 'Code of Conduct' and this Safeguarding Policy and associated Procedures. Advisory Board members will also complete a 'Fit and Proper Person' disclosure.

With regard to identified roles, Active Cumbria, through Cumberland Council may request a criminal records check through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) as part of its safer recruitment process. For certain roles the check will also include information held on the DBS children and adults' barred lists, together with any information held by police forces that is reasonably considered to be relevant to the applied for post.

5. Training and Development

All Active Cumbria employees and volunteers will attend training in recognising and understanding possible signs of child abuse and know what steps need to be taken to provide child protection, as well as the early help provision. We will also offer opportunities to the wider sports and physical activity workforce across Cumbria to access a range of professional development opportunities.

This will include the provision of subsidised access to: -

- Generic Safeguarding training opportunities via Cumbria Safeguarding Children's Partnership.
- Sport specific safeguarding training opportunities.
- Child Protection in Sport Unit training opportunities and events.
- NSPCC online training courses.
- Additional training will be mandatory for Active Cumbria's Lead and Deputy Welfare Officers.

Details of up and coming generic and sport specific safeguarding training opportunities and events can be found on Active Cumbria's Website: www.activecumbria.org/safeinsport

6. Low Level Concerns Policy Statement

What we mean by Low-Level Concern?

A low-level concern is any concern that an adult has behaved in a way that:

- is inconsistent with the staff code of conduct. This includes inappropriate conduct outside of work.
- does not meet the threshold of harm or is not considered serious enough to refer to the local authority.

Low-Level Concerns are part of a spectrum of behaviour, this includes:

- Inadvertent or thoughtless behaviour
- Behaviour that might be inappropriate depending on the circumstances
- Behaviour which is intended to enable abuse

The key is that the behaviour is inappropriate and not as set out in our Code of Conduct, which if allowed to continue, develop or go unaddressed, could lead to a breach the Safeguarding Standards for the organisation. It may take place face-to-face, in writing or digitally such as in online meetings, via social media or email.

The term low-level concern does not mean that it is insignificant, it means that the adult's behaviour towards a child or adult at risk does not meet the harm threshold (links included within this policy at the bottom of Section 9).

Why respond to Low-Level Concerns?

Having clear procedures for responding to low-level concerns is part of creating a culture of openness and trust. It helps ensure that all staff model the organisational values and helps keep everyone safe. It will also protect staff from potential false allegations and misunderstanding.

It is recognised that low-level concerns cover a broad spectrum of actions and can include both intentional and unintentional or inadvertent behaviour or consequences. It is therefore important the response is proportionate and appropriate. The purpose of this policy statement is to ensure that everyone knows and understands the importance of reporting any concern about themselves or colleagues, no matter how small, and how to report them. By doing so, we can:

- Better safeguard children and adults at risk
- Support staff and volunteers regarding the expectations of the overarching policies
- Avoid unnecessary escalations and reduce risks

This policy statement is embedded into both the Active Cumbria Safeguarding CYP and Adults at Risk Policies to ensure that it is a process that effectively safeguards all. Reporting and identifying low-level concerns at the earliest stage allows the individual to be supported but also prevents the behaviour escalating and developing into a safeguarding concern. Case reviews have illustrated the importance of sharing, recording and handling low-level concerns, so that potential patterns of inappropriate, problematic or concerning behaviour can be identified as soon as possible, and appropriate action can be taken swiftly in response.

Reporting Low Level Concerns

It is critical that all low-level concerns are received by Senior Manager – Richard Johnston (Richard.johnston@cumberland.gov.uk) or Designated Safeguarding Lead – Cameron Wilson. If either are unavailable, you should contact Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead – Michelle Young and if the concern is about the Senior Manager or Designated Safeguarding Lead you should contact the Advisory Board Welfare Champion – Caroline Taylor Beswick. All contact details can be found within Section 11 of this policy.

7. Promoting Good Practice

All personnel involved in the delivery of sport and physical activity should be required to demonstrate exemplary behaviour in order to promote the welfare of children and reduce the likelihood of allegations being made. Active Cumbria is keen to promote good practice and have sourced a library of relevant information to support everyone across Cumbria to safeguard and protect children and young people. Including:

- Code of conduct for children and young people.
- Code of conduct for parent and carers.
- Code of conduct for coaches and leaders.
- Guidance for sports clubs and organisations.

All guidance and information can be accessed via the www.activecumbria.org/safeinsport Active Cumbria regularly communicates and promote safeguarding messages and information including the following:

- Active Cumbria Website with a dedicated Safe in Sport Section.
- Regular e-Newsletters
- Regular Twitter Feeds using #safeinsport
- Regular Facebook posts.
- At Network/ Forum Meetings.
- Through information received via the Cumbria Safeguarding Children's Partnership 5-minute briefings.
- Directly to other organisations commissioned or funded by Active Cumbria who provide activities for children and young people on our behalf.

8. Understanding and Recognising Different Types of Child Abuse and Neglect

Abuse and neglect are forms of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting; by those known to the child or, more rarely, by a stranger. They may be abused by an adult or adults or another child or children. Further details of different types of child abuse and neglect can be found in the Safeguarding Practice Guidance section on the Cumbria Safeguarding Children's Partnership Website <https://www.cumbriasafeguardingchildren.co.uk/default.asp>

NOTE: All Safeguarding Practice Guidance should be read in conjunction with: 'Guidance to Ensure the Voice of The Child is Heard'.

REMEMBER It is not our role to determine whether a child or young person is being abused or neglected but to record and report our concerns as outlined in this policy.

9. Reporting Child Protection Concerns

All Active Cumbria employees and volunteers should be alert to the signs of abuse and neglect, that you question the behaviour of children and parents/carers and don't necessarily take what you are told at face value. You should make sure you know where to turn to if you need to ask for help.

- 1.1. Emergency If you think a child is in imminent danger or needs urgent medical attention don't delay – call 999.
- 1.2. Asking for Help Otherwise you should immediately record (AC Referral and Information Form) and report your concerns to a designated person within Active Cumbria who will usually decide on the necessary action to take. In the first instance you should contact:
